- This document is also based on Department for Education (DfE) guidance: The Equality Act 2010 and schools.

All school staff are expected to have regard to this document and to work to achieve the objectives as set out in section 8.

4. Eliminating discrimination

Milecastle Primary School is aware of its obligations under the Equality Act 2010 and complies with non-discrimination provisions.

Where relevant, our policies include reference to the importance of avoiding discrimination and other prohibited conduct.

Staff and governors are regularly reminded of their responsibilities under the Equality Act, for example during meetings. Where this has been discussed during a meeting it is recorded in the meeting minutes.

New staff receive training on the Equality Act as part of their induction, and all staff receive refresher training and are made aware of this policy.

Milecastle Primary School has a designated member of staff for monitoring equality issues, and an equality link governor. They will liaise regarding any issues and make senior leaders and governors aware of these as appropriate

5. Advancing equality of opportunity

As set out in the DfE guidance on the Equality Act, Milecastle Primary School aims to advance equality of opportunity by:

- Removing or minimising disadvantages suffered by people which are connected to a particular characteristic they have (e.g. pupils with disabilities, or gay pupils who are being subjected to homophobic bullying or pupils who are subjected to racist bullying because of their race, ethnicity, culture or appearance).

- Taking steps to meet the particular needs of people who have a particular characteristic (e.g. enabling Muslim pupils to pray at prescribed times)
- Encouraging people who have a particular characteristic to participate fully in any activities (e.g. encouraging all pupils to be involved in the full range of school societies)

In fulfilling this aspect of the duty, Milecastle Primary School will:

- Publish attainment data each academic year showing how pupils with different characteristics are performing
- Analyse the above data to determine strengths and areas for improvement, implement actions in response and publish this information
- Make evidence available identifying improvements for specific groups (e.g. declines in incidents of homophobic or transphobic bullying)
- Publish further data about any issues associated with particular protected characteristics, identifying any issues which could affect our own pupils

6. Fostering good relations

Milecastle Primary School aims to foster good relations between those who share a protected characteristic and those who do not share it by:

- Promoting tolerance, friendship and understanding of a range of religions and cultures through different aspects of our curriculum. This includes teaching in RE, citizenship and personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education, but also activities in other curriculum areas.
- Holding assemblies dealing with relevant issues. Pupils will be encouraged to take a lead in such assemblies and we will also invite external speakers to contribute
- Working with our local community. This includes inviting leaders of local faith groups to speak at assemblies, and organising school trips and activities based around the local community. During RE teaching, it may be appropriate for children to visit places of worship in the local or wider Newcastle community.
- Encouraging and implementing initiatives to deal with tensions between different groups of pupils within the school. For example, our school council has representatives from different year groups and is formed of pupils from a range of backgrounds. All pupils are encouraged to participate in the school's activities, such as sports clubs.

7. Equality considerations in decision-making

Milecastle Primary School ensures it has due regard to equality considerations whenever significant decisions are made.

The school always considers the impact of significant decisions on particular groups. For example, when a school trip or activity is being planned, the school considers whether the trip:

- Cuts across any religious holidays

- › Is accessible to pupils with disabilities
- › Has equivalent facilities for boys and girls
- › Could any content while on the trip cause upset to any children from a particular group?

8. Equality objectives

Objective 1

To ensure all pupil groups reach their full potential and narrow any gaps in attainment.

We have chosen this objective to advance equality of opportunity for all groups, including those with protected characteristics.

To achieve this we will rigorously monitor the progress of all groups to clearly identify any underachievement in performance and adjust provision to support progress.

Progress will be identified and challenged in Pupil Progress Meetings with class teachers each term; through progress tracking by the SENCo and SLT each term, through monitoring of interventions using intervention records and reports and through analysis of school data.

Objective 2

Have in place a reasonable adjustment agreement for all staff with disabilities, to meet their needs better and ensure that any disadvantages they experience are addressed.

We have chosen this objective to eliminate discrimination and ensure any staff with a disability can continue to work and carry out their duties successfully where reasonable adjustments can be made.

To achieve this objective we will discuss with individual staff what barriers they are facing in their role and what reasonable adjustments can be made to overcome these barriers. Adjustments which can be made will then be actioned. School will work with external agencies such as Occupational Health to identify areas for action and take advice on supporting those staff members.

Progress will be identified through any referrals made to appropriate agencies and reasonable adjustment agreements created and agreed with staff to enable them to carry out their duties.

Objective 3

To promote Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development through all appropriate curricular activities, with particular reference to issues of equality and diversity.

Why we have chosen this objective to eliminate discrimination and foster good relationships across all characteristics.

To achieve this objective we plan to address it through daily assemblies, these may be whole school, key stage or class based; through the PSHE and RE curriculum. We will also ensure that our children have an awareness of different cultures, religions and beliefs through an enriched curriculum. We will strive to ensure children do not use homophobic or racist language and that any incidents are dealt with immediately.

Progress will be identified by a well-planned and organised PSHE and RE curriculum in place across school; a wide range of assembly themes planned for the whole school; strong school values underpinning the whole Milecastle Curriculum offer and the whole school approach to SMSC development in action.

Objective 4

To ensure that all pupil groups are punctual and attend school regularly.

We have chosen this objective to advance equality of opportunity as research shows the significant impact of lost learning through lateness and low attendance.

To achieve this objective the School Business Manager, Head Teacher and Family Support Worker plan to closely monitor attendance of all pupils on a weekly basis and, where there is a concern, ensure early intervention is put in place. The Family support Worker will engage and work with families to support them to improve attendance accessing additional support where needed (including referrals to external agencies such as Early help where appropriate).

Progress will be identified by: Early Help plans in place, targeted support from the Family Support worker with identified families in place, weekly attendance reporting well established and shared with key staff, attendance promoting initiatives well established in school, engaging curriculum offer in place where all children can access high quality learning and experiences.

Objective 5

Include the 'Two Ticks' positive about people with disabilities symbol on all job adverts, application forms and information, to help address the under-representation of people with disabilities in the school workforce.

We have chosen this objective to advance equality of opportunity for all people and eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2020.

To achieve this objective we plan to include the 'Two Ticks' symbol on all job adverts and adhere to the Local Authorities promotion of this in job advertising.

Progress will be identified by: all jobs advertised through the LA have included the 'Two Ticks' symbol and any reasonable adjustments made for the interview process for an applicant with a disability.

9. Monitoring arrangements

The Head Teacher or designated member of staff will update the equality information we publish, at least every year.

This document will be reviewed by the Head Teacher and named Governor at least every 4 years.

This document will be approved by Governing Body.
